

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

26th January, 2010

Dear Dominik,

The Queen has asked me to thank you, Claudia Brozio, André Rother and Sebastian Schulte for your letters of 21st December.

Her Majesty was interested to read about your school project of writing letters to dignitaries, and has taken careful note of your comments. I am afraid, however, that throughout her reign The Queen has made it a rule not publicly express her personal views. However, if you have not already done so, may I suggest that you visit the British Monarchy website at www.royal.gov.uk where you may find information of assistance to you.

I am sorry to send you a disappointing reply, but may I send my good wishes for the success of your project.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Sonia Bonici
Senior Correspondence Officer

Dominik Hardebusch.
